

HANAHAN HIGH SCHOOL

ELEANOR LYNN HATCHER
VALEDICTORIAN

Eleanor Lynn Hatcher is the Class of 2019 Valedictorian for Hanahan High School. The daughter of David and Dayle Hatcher, Eleanor has a long list of accomplishments achieved during her time as a Hanahan Hawk. She is a two-time Breakfast of Champions honoree, a Duke Tip Scholar, a Junior Scholar, and a Junior Marshall. In addition to being selected as “Miss Hawk,” Eleanor was also an American Legion Auxiliary Palmetto Girls State Delegate and was named to the Trident Technical College Dean’s List. On the athletic side, she was awarded the Tennis Hawk Award and was named Tennis Most Valuable Player. Her extracurricular activities included varsity tennis, National Honor Society, Beta Club, Level IV Science QUEST, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. She served as a two-time captain of the tennis team and also as Beta Club treasurer. Eleanor was awarded the following scholarships, which collectively totaled $60,000: Clemson University Julie Gibson Amick Endowed Scholarship, Clemson Presidential Scholarship, Clemson Palmetto Pact Scholarship, South Carolina Palmetto Fellows Scholarship, H.L. Dukes PTSA Scholarship, Armed Forces Communication and Electronics Association Scholarship, Willis W. Austin, Jr. Memorial Scholarship, Hanahan Athletic Booster Club Scholarship, STI Cares Foundation Scholarship, Santee Cooper Career and Technical Education Career Pathway Scholarship, and the Charleston Post SAME Scholarship. She plans to study biomedical engineering at Clemson. In her message to classmates, Eleanor said, “Throughout the past four years, we have learned a lot of lessons, but the one I hope sticks with everyone is that no matter how tough life can get, giving up is never the solution.”

KAITLYN VICTORIA SONGER
SALUTATORIAN

Earning the distinguished rank of Salutatorian for Hanahan High School’s Class of 2019 is Kaitlyn Victoria Songer. Kaitlyn is the daughter of Tracy and Andrew Songer. Her noteworthy achievements include being named to the Trident Technical College Dean’s List, participating in Palmetto Girls State, and receiving the Hawk Award. She was also selected as a Junior Scholar and Junior Marshal. During her time at Hanahan, Kaitlyn served as treasurer for the National Honor Society and a varsity tennis co-captain. She was also involved in Debate Club, Science Club, Science Quest, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Beta Club. Kaitlyn earned a total of $30,500 in scholarships, including the USC Dean’s Scholar, USC STEM Supplement, and Palmetto Fellows. She will be attending the University of South Carolina, where she plans to major in general engineering with hopes to pursue a career in forensic science.

ZAINAB
AKBAR
NATHANI RANKED THIRD IN CLASS

Zainab Akbar Nathani excelled during her time at Hanahan High School, as demonstrated by her list of awards and achievements. The daughter of Parveen Akbar and Akbar Nathani, Zainab graduated third in her class. Her awards include Principal’s Honor Roll (2015-2018), Junior Marshal, Junior and Senior Beta Club Certification and Pin, Graduate Award for Beta Club, National Honor Society Certification, Academic Letter and Pin, Varsity Letter for tennis, Renaissance Student of the Month, AP Scholar Award for exemplary college-level achievement, third place winner in Fleet Reserve Association Essay Contest, and Junior Scholar. Zainab also served as student body vice president, National Honor Society secretary, Beta Club secretary, and Science Club secretary. As a result of her achievements, Zainab earned some $68,500 in scholarships, including Palmetto Fellows, USC Dean’s Scholar, USC STEM Supplement Scholarship, Exchange Club A.C.E. Scholarship, Exchange Club Youth of the Year Scholarship (District), Exchange Club Youth of the Year Scholarship (State), South Carolina State Fair Scholarship, Bunny and Ray Rabun Scholarship, Steinberg Law Firm Scholarship, and the American Red Cross High School Scholarship. Zainab will be attending the University of South Carolina, where she will major in biological science. She hopes to one day become a physician.

BRIANNA
DESARAE
GEDDIS RANKED FOURTH IN CLASS

Hanahan High School graduate Brianna Desarae Geddis is ranked fourth in her class. The daughter of Kendrick and Lacrechia Geddis, Brianna received multiple awards throughout her high school career. She was named a Breakfast of Champions honoree, a South Carolina Junior Scholar, and was first runner up as homecoming queen. Additionally, she made the Principal’s High Honor Roll all four years, as well as the Trident Technical College Part-Time (Dual Credit) Dean’s List.

Brianna also served as president of the National Honor Society, president of the National Beta Club, and co-captain of the Stomp Squad Step Team. Her other extracurricular activities include Delta Sigma Theta Gemz, Delta Sigma Theta Finer Womanhood Program, Young People’s Department (Ebenezer A.M.E. Church), and serving as a Charleston County School District employee. Brianna earned more than $66,000 in scholarships, including the North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University Merit Scholarship, University of South Carolina Upstate Top Scholar Scholarship, University of South Carolina Merit Scholarship, Winthrop University Merit Scholarship, Charleston Southern University Top Scholar Scholarship, and the D. Ward and Gladys S. Wilson Scholarship. She will be attending the University of South Carolina’s Upstate campus. She plans to obtain a degree in biology and hopes to become a pediatrician.

JASON YEUNG RANKED FIFTH IN CLASS

Earning the rank of fifth in Hanahan’s Class of 2019, Jason Yeung hopes to study biochemistry in college to prepare for a career in dermatology. The son of Kwai and Elaine Yeung, Jason was named a Junior Scholar, an AP Scholar with Honors, and a Junior Marshal. Additionally, he served as captain of the Social Studies Quest Team and was a member of the National Honor Society, HOSA, and the Social Studies Quest Debate Club. Jason earned $35,200 in scholarships, including the Clemson University Presidential Scholarship, the Clemson Julie Gibson Amick Endowed Scholarship, and the Clemson University Gateway 2 Clemson Scholarship. He plans to attend Clemson University in the fall.

BISHOP ENGLAND HIGH SCHOOL

CRISTA NICOLE VROMAN VALEDICTORIAN

Crista Vroman was born in Charleston to Drs. David and Deanna Vroman. Crista has an older sister, Jenna and a younger sister, Kayla. As a Daniel Island resident, Crista attended Daniel Island School from kindergarten through eighth grade. She was part of the inaugural class at Daniel Island School for nine years. At Bishop England, Crista enjoyed challenging herself and took a rigorous schedule of all honors and AP courses. By the end of her senior year, she had taken a total of seven AP courses. Outside of academics, Crista enjoyed playing tennis. She was on the varsity team during her four years at BE and was captain of the team during her junior and senior years. Crista also enjoyed playing soccer, but due to her two hip surgeries, she was unable to play during high school. During her time at Bishop England, Crista participated in many extracurricular activities. By the end of her senior year, she was part of Random Acts of Kindness Club, Youth in Government, Senior Board, National Honors Society and was president of Mu Alpha Theta (math club), Dorothy Day Society, and Ping Pong Club. She won two of the school ping pong tournaments while at Bishop England and is known as the Ping Pong Champion. In addition to extracurricular activities, Crista volunteered tutoring children at Capabilities and had part-time jobs. In her free time, Crista enjoys hot yoga, reading, traveling, and spending time with friends and family. Crista will be attending Duke University in the fall, where she plans to double major in chemistry and Spanish. Her long-term goals include going to medical school. She plans to study abroad in Europe and continue volunteering while at Duke. She is incredibly thankful to have had amazing teachers, incredible friends, and a supportive family during her time at Bishop England and is thrilled to be heading to Durham in the fall. Go Blue Devils!

GRACE ANN CARLSON
SALUTATORIAN

Grace Ann Carlson was born in Atlanta, Georgia to Rachel and Christian Carlson. Grace Ann is the oldest of three children, and is followed by siblings Mary James and Chip. Grace Ann and her family moved to Daniel Island in 2014. Her brother, Chip, is graduating from Christ Our King Stella Maris this year, and Mary James just finished her freshman year at Bishop England. Grace Ann has taken a full load of honors and AP classes at BE, including seven AP courses. She received the West Point Award, AP English Language & Composition Award, AP English Literature & Composition Award, Honors Composition Award, Honors English II Award, AP Spanish Language Award, Honors Spanish II, III, and IV Awards, and the AP Scholar Award, among others. Over the past four years, Grace Ann has been a member of National Honor Society, Spanish Club, BE Ambassadors, Dorothy Day Society, Youth in Government, and Mu Alpha Theta. Among her extracurriculars, she spent time volunteering at IWPR and Summit Place. Grace Ann played varsity lacrosse for all four years at BE and has been an integral part in winning all four of the program’s state championships. She played for the SC State Team for two years, participating in the Women’s Lacrosse National Tournament. Throughout her lacrosse career, she earned first-team all-state in 2017, 2018, and 2019, she was Attack Player of the Year in 2017, 2018, and 2019, and earned the title of All Academic in 2018 and 2019. This year, she was named Scholar Athlete of the Year. She played travel lacrosse for the Fins and Carolina Flight throughout her high school years. More than anything, she loves spending time with her family at the beach or watching the TV series “Friday Night Lights” and loves her two Boykin Spaniels, Shep and Rivers. When she has free time, she loves to spend time with her friends, family, and dogs and relax at the beach. Grace Ann will continue her education at MIT, where she plans on using her engineering and political science background to pursue a career as an international civil rights lawyer. Grace Ann is extremely grateful for her family for always believing in and encouraging her to be the best she can be. She would like to thank her teachers at BEHS for supporting her and helping her get to where she is today. Go Engineers!
